Ending Violence against Women and Children

SPO has marked the UN Women efforts of 16 days of Activism on ‘Ending Violence against Women and Children’ by organizing a few seminars and activities with the local activists, gender specialists, experts, religious and political leaders, women and youth groups across the country. All these activities were executed by the Regional Offices of SPO from Nov 25th to Dec 10th 2011. The organization endorsed the efforts of ending violence by signing 1,000 Action cards titled ‘Million Names Million Voices’ under UN women campaign of signing 1 million signature cards ending violence against women and children.

In this pursuance of 16 days of Activism, SPO DI Khan office in collaboration with Daman Society Network & Women leaders organized a programme titled “Violence against Women (VAW) & Our Responsibilities” on Nov 26th 2011 in DI Khan. The objective of the event was to create awareness among different stakeholders on fulfilling their responsibilities against the violation of women and children rights as the keystones of social society. The event was attended by eminent religious scholars, Lawyers, District In - charge Social Welfare Department Protection Center, NGO representatives, Journalists, Women Leaders and Women Rights activists etc.

SPO Lahore Office in collaboration with Gender Studies Department, Lahore College for Women University organized a seminar titled ‘Gender Based Violence in Pakistan-Issues and Challenges’ on Dec 8th 2011. The objective of the event was to create awareness among youth on the importance of raising voice against the brutal acts and stereotypical attitudes towards women rights in the society. The students who will be the future leaders were sensitized by the political leaders, social activists and experts on the vital role of women in socio economic growth of the country. The event was attended by renowned human rights activists, scholars and experts.

A comprehensive talk on the ‘Importance of Domestic Violence Bill’ was organized by SPO Lahore Office on Dec 8th 2011. The talk opened with a speech stating Victims of domestic violence have long faced a double injustice - abuse at home and then no protection from the government.

SPO Lahore Office with the financial support of Oxfam GB organized a dialogue on the ‘Role of Media for elimination of violence against women’. The dialogue was organized under Oxfam GB and SPO’s project of Ending Torture and III treatment against women.

Apart from these seminars, talks and events, radio programs with FM 95 and 103 titled Chanah, visit to Dar - ul - Aman with women protection forum team, and a culmination seminar during the 16 Days of Activism were also organized to mark SPO’s efforts towards ending violence against women and children in the country.

Message of Peace and Love in Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai’s Poetry by Ms. Fahmida Riaz

Pakistan is blessed with a rich heritage of Sufism that promotes the message of peace, tolerance and harmony. In today’s world the ideals of peace and harmony could not be achieved until we reflect and internalize the message of Sufis who promoted this message since centuries.

SPO from its forum Civic Café in Islamabad, referred to the message and poetry of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai (1689-1752). Shah Latif generally known as Bhittai vehemently condemned the act of aggression, which is the main cause of turmoil on this earth.

Ms. Fahmida Riaz, a well known writer, poet, and feminist gave the lecture on Shah Latif Bhittai’s message of love and Peace through Sufism. She said, his poetry is elaboration of spiritual quest. While talking about his life and Sufism, she said Shah Latif has Sufi family background and was also interested in Molana Romi poetry, which resulted people called him direct animation of Molana Romi and sometimes compared with him. Although Sufi’s does not believe on competition, she added. She said Shah Bhittai was creator of Music; some of his Sur were created in musical nodes, followers are singing his famous Sur Kalyan for two hundred and fifty years. While talking about his message, she said, he was believer of spiritualism, and used to say that ritualism is not enough.

She said, Shah’s poetry is unique, even now after two hundred and fifty years, his ideas of peace and love for humanity are thought provoking and mile stone as it creates magic of love for all. Ms. Fahmida Riaz while praising his glory said, he not only love Hazrat Mohammad (PBUH), but also praised Joggi’s as they are also searching for God, and believed that this is the only possibility to love all human beings. Shah Latif’s giving his message of Peace to Mankind in his sur Kalyan, which is the main cause of turmoil on this earth.

Patience, humanity adopt,
For anger is disease-
Forbearance bringeth joy and ‘peace’,
If you would understand.
(Sur Kalyan; Peace)

Peace and Harmony is one of the basic components of SPO’s program, which is based on building social harmony among diverse groups to share and understand each other’s point of view and respect differences. It aims to build capacity and empower civil society networks and communities around social harmony and peace with a focus on restoring social harmony and building a culture of peace and participation, and partnering with all local stakeholders in the development process.

Civic Café has an objective of providing a space for all to discuss contemporary issues. The basic idea behind the Civic Café is to strengthen the role of civil society through dialogue, and to provide space for discussion on various topics, building new relationships, and strengthening old ones. The participants of this forum do not represent any particular group, class or school of thought, rather they hail from different walks of life.
A three days training workshop on
Moving from Disaster to Development
(Gender Mainstreaming & Disaster Management)
29-31 December, 2011, was organized by SPO Training Unit, Hyderabad

The main objectives behind the organization of this training were:
1. To develop a skilled human resource who should be well aware of such situations and can effectively help community, properly assist their organization and should help others with all their learned skills and shadow of international standards necessary to follow in all emergency activities and
2. To impel SPO Training Unit towards an institutional approach where it should be known as a platform for different individuals to come and augment their skills in their appropriate fields/profession.

The three days training workshop with 25 participants from different organizations was started with participatory approach and continued till end with same methodology.

The training was comprised on gender mainstreaming and disaster management. Concept, basics, types, causes and cycle of disaster were discussed, introduction of HAP and Sphere standards were shared, gender concept, practical & strategic needs, vulnerability, Its analysis, assessment and special care of vulnerability groups; gender roles, gender analysis under gender lens and gender mainstreaming in disaster were practically discussed in detail.

Khyber Pakhtunkhwa is unlikely to achieve the millennium development goals (MDGs) by the 2015 deadline in light of the current socioeconomic conditions and natural and manmade disasters, said speakers at a panel discussion arranged by SPO in Peshawar on ‘Effects of Conflicts on Achievements of MDGs in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa’. Panelists also regretted that development of social sector had never been a government priority as most of national revenues were spent on defence and debt servicing for the country being a security state. Noted pediatrician and chairperson SPO, Dr Tufail Mohammad said Khyber Pakhtunkhwa was nowhere near the goals of reducing child mortality rate and improving maternal health.

Chief executive officer SPO Naseer Memon said the Human Development Report-2011 placed Pakistan after Nigeria on the list of countries with the largest number of children out of school, while the country topped the list of four polio endemic states. He said there were three Ds defense, debt servicing and development but the major chunk of the budget was allocated to defence and debt servicing, while development sector was not a priority. Regional head of SPO Arshad Haroon told participants that MDGs were eight international development goals that all 193 UN members and at least 23 international organisations had agreed to achieve by 2015. Disparity exists in imparting education to boys and girls in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa as there are 14,770 schools for boys and only 7,838 for girls,’ said academician Dr Fakhrul Islam..
Strengthening Participatory Organisation (SPO) is one of the largest rights-based civil society organisation in Pakistan. It strives to address the emerging issues in the particular socio-economic and political context of Pakistan through its core programme areas of democratic governance, social justice and peace and social harmony. In addition, SPO has a component of humanitarian response that deals with disasters and emergency situations, such as earthquake in Azad Kashmir, floods in Balochistan, Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) of Khyber Pakhtoonkwa and relief activities in the flood affected areas of AJK, Khyber Pakhtoonkwa, Balochistan, Punjab and Sindh.

Human rights lie at the heart of SPO’s core programme that aims at nurturing democracy, justice and peace in the country through capacity building, action research, awareness raising, advocacy, policy dialogue, trainings including tailor made training courses, dissemination of information and literature, mobilization of communities, developing partnership with local organisations and encouraging and supporting peace movements.

SPO's core programme is currently supported by Australian Agency for International Development (AusAid), British High Commission (BHC) and Embassy for the Kingdom of Netherlands (EKN).

SPO also acknowledges support from other donors for its thematic programmes and projects.

From Disaster to Development
SPO Raises the Question of Sluggish Response of Flood Disaster

Leading national and international NGOs representative, donor organizations and civil society groups have expressed serious concerns over sluggish response of humanitarian community to the devastating disasters caused by floods and heavy rains in Pakistan especially in Sindh.

The concern was raised at the round table conference arranged by the SPO, where participants said that thousands of people were still suffering from the lack of services and their basic needs were not being met in the affected areas because of the sluggish response.

Donors, representatives of international and national NGOs, aid agencies, leading figures from civil society, and media said that Global Financial and Economic Crisis, other ongoing global crisis, type of disaster late Government appeal for international aid and Limited Media Coverage, are main reasons for Sluggish Response by Humanitarian Community.

Ms. Neva Khan, Country Director OGB said, the funding to this disaster has been extremely sluggish. Aid efforts of the UN agencies, the Pakistani civil Society, the government of Pakistan and other humanitarian agencies are under threat.

SPO’s Chief Executive Naseer Memon said, delayed appeal by the government, economic slowdown in Euro zone and US, lack of efficiency and transparency on part of government, lukewarm coverage by international media are considered as key reasons for the poor response by humanitarian aid community.
